the boats, which, besides the native boat crew, contained Purser Burn-ingham and some passengers, was caught by a big breaker and filled with water.
All the occupants were washed out but both they and the boat were safely carried ashore. The passengers, who did not appreciate the performance, decided that they were in no particular hurry to go to Honolulu and postponed their trip till the next steamer, while Burn-ingham and the boat boys went back to the vessel without any further mishap.

Bills of Health.

Collector of the Port E. R. Stackable is in receipt of a letter from the Treasury Department treating the matter of bills of health about which a question had been made. It reads as follows:

Treasury Department, Oct. 12, 1901.
Sir: I transmit herewith a copy of a report, dated the 4th instant, from the collector of customs at San Francisco, Cal., relative to bills of health of vessels arriving from foreign ports at your port and proceeding thence to San Francisco.

In such cases you may return the duplicate bill of health delivered to you under the act of February 15, 1893, to the master of the vessel concerned, for presentation by him to the collector of customs at San Francisco.
These instructions are understood to be in accordance substantially with the views regarding the matter, of yourself, the collector of customs at San Francisco, and the Supervising Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service.
Respectfully,
O. L. SPAULDING,
Acting Secretary,
Collector of Customs, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Master's License Suspended.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 22.—Inspectors Bryant and Cherry yesterday rendered their decision in regard to the steamship Garonne, which returned to Seattle after sailing for Nome on September 20.
As a result of their investigations, Captain John Alwin, master of the vessel, has his license suspended for ninety days, and Duncan Cree, chief engineer, suffers a revocation of his papers. On September 22 the engineer informed the captain that the ship was unable to proceed on her way because of the poor quality of her coal and the fact that her boilers were leaking. The inspectors decided that the boilers were in a safe condition to complete her voyage, and they were so pronounced by Lloyd's inspectors. The coal was declared to be of poor quality, but not sufficiently so to warrant the return.

Coaling Station Finished.

Healy & Tibbitts of this city have completed the construction of the United States coaling station in the harbor of Pago Pago, Samoa, and the force of thirty-two men who have been employed in the work will return from the South seas in the steamer Ventura in a few days. The station will cost the government nearly half a million dollars. It has a capacity for 10,000 tons of coal and has already been provided with this amount.—Chronicle, October 24.

Russian Stowaway Released.

Capt. Vladimir Jacobowsky, of the Russian merchant steamer Michail, who came from Yokohama as a stowaway on the steamer America Maru, is a free man, having been released from custody on the steamer. The matter of his release was kept very quiet for some unknown reason, as was the fact of his presence on the America Maru when the vessel arrived here. The main concern of the Russian captain is now to get his family over to this country.—Chronicle, October 24.

Shipping Notes.

The schooner Rosamond, Captain Johnson, cleared San Francisco on October 23 for this port. She will bring a heavy cargo of general freight.

The steamer Maui was loading sugar on the bark Andrew Welch yesterday.

October 23 the American bark Santa Paula arrived at Port Townsend from this port.

The Carrollton, which is at present lying at the Railroad wharf, is rapidly discharging her cargo of coal, although she has only a small crew to do it with.
During Tuesday 235 tons were put over the side.

The steamer Mikahala was loading 3,000 bags of sugar into the barkentine Irmgard at Brewer's wharf yesterday afternoon. The Irmgard expects to sail in the middle of next week and hopes to get about three-quarters of a load of sugar.

Purser Friel of the Mikahala reports following sugar left on Kauai: K. S. M.
400 bags and W. 1,200 bags. The steamer Hanalei was at Hanalei discharging freight. The Ke Au Hou was at Anahola discharging coal and the Nihau was at Elele discharging lumber. Fine weather on Kauai. Crossing the channel strong northeast winds with choppy sea.

A TYPICAL SOUTH AFRICAN STORE.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays river, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of S. Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station, and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale
